

PRESS RELEASE 5 AUGUST 2021

ASPIRE GLOBAL SIGNS PLATFORM, SPORTS AND GAMES DEAL WITH JNS GAMING

Aspire Global has signed yet another deal covering the entire proprietary offering – platform, sportsbook, games, game aggregator and managed services. The latest deal is with JNS Gaming for the launch of a new casino and sports brand. The launch is supposed to take place later this year and is managed by a senior, industry experienced and professional team.

JNS Gaming is operating under its own license and the new brand is financed by a multimillion USD investment which will ensure a successful launch. JNS Gaming searched for a partner who could provide proprietary, high quality services covering platform, sportsbook, casino and managed services. Aspire Global's vast iGaming experience along with its leading technology and broad offering were the deciding factors for JNS Gaming.

Jeremy Taylor, CEO at JNS Gaming, said: "We were looking for an experienced, technically advanced partner who can offer us a complete solution. With Aspire Global, we get a long-term partner with whom we can develop and grow a significant, new brand."

Tsachi Maimon, CEO at Aspire Global, said: "This is yet another partnership which proves the strength of Aspire Global's competitive iGaming offering. With our presence in four continents and a complete, leading iGaming offering covering the whole value chain, we provide our partners with cutting-edge solutions and crucial expansion opportunities. Aspire Global is the true powerhouse for iGaming operators."
