Aspire Global's Btobet Supports Flutter in Brazilian DFS offering

Aspire Global's BtoBet, a leading sportsbook provider, will be providing FanDuel, part of Flutter Entertainment, with its cutting-edge Player Account Management platform as the operator enters the Brazilian market with its Daily Fantasy Sports (DFS) offering.

The deal is the latest for BtoBet in the Latin American region, and an extension of its collaboration with Flutter Entertainment. After the regulation of the Colombian market in 2016, BtoBet has established itself as the leading sportsbook provider in the country and in October last year Betfair – part of Flutter Entertainment – chose to enter the Colombian market with BtoBet's solution.

Aaron Champagne, New Markets Director at FanDuel said: "We are excited to extend our partnership with BtoBet for the use of their Player Account Management to offer our Daily Fantasy Sports (DFS) product in Brazil. We look forward to working closely with BtoBet, and through our shared commitment to offer a unique DFS experience to local players."

Tsachi Maimon, CEO at Aspire Global, said: "The agreement with FanDuel is yet another significant step towards our objective of establishing strong positions in the US and Brazil. Our success in these markets will be important steps in reaching our goal to become a world leading B2B iGaming supplier."
